

Communityfy Qld is an established community organisation that has provided a diverse range of services for over 25 years.

We are a multi-service organisation that provides a range of programs and activities for families and individuals in the community to enhance their quality of life. Our primary concern is the welfare and wellbeing of socially, physically, intellectually and emotionally disadvantaged and vulnerable people.

We work with local people to promote a diverse, socially just and inclusive community.

EMERGENCY RELIEF

We offer emergency assistance to support people experiencing financial difficulties. Community can provide financial assistance, counselling, information and referrals.

THE PANTRY

The Pantry operates twice a week and is staffed, maintained and supported by volunteers associated with the Inner Western Suburbs Inter Church Council, the Bardon Fellowship, the Paddington Red Hill Rotary Club and the community.

The Pantry is open on Mondays and Thursdays from 12 noon to 2pm.

No appointment is necessary, however please bring your pension or health care card (with your current address), to confirm your eligibility.

What do we offer?

- food vouchers
- preserved food and frozen meals
- bread
- fruit and vegetables
- Christmas hampers

You can make an appointment with the Family Support Worker to discuss your financial needs, receive counselling or for information and referral.

Who is eligible?

Applicants need to:

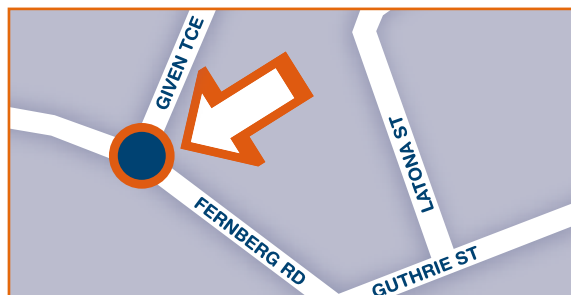

- be receiving a government pension or payment
- live in the Inner North or Inner Western suburbs

This is a free and confidential service funded by the Commonwealth and State Governments.

Any financial donations or gifts of preserved, canned and frozen foods are welcome. Contributions are greatly appreciated and donations to Community Qld are tax deductible.
