RECREATION

Community coordinates and delivers recreation programs on behalf of community organisations and sponsors with the aim to encourage residents to lead active and healthy lifestyles. These programs offer participants the opportunity to experience a variety of recreational and sporting activities with support, and encourage community clubs and organisations to showcase and deliver their activities to the community in partnership with councils.

Recreation program aims

1. To create a unique social environment and celebration of the community in recreational activities.
2. To increase the involvement of the community in recreational activities.
3. To encourage the ongoing participation in recreational activities.
4. To provide a friendly, safe, supportive and non-competitive environment for the community.
5. To satisfy the needs and interests of all the community, including those from marginalised groups (NES, ESL, ATST, women on low income and women with disabilities).

Benefits of participation

Participants

- Socialise and form new friendships
- Learn new skills
- Experience outdoor adventures
- Extend horizons
- Fun, relaxation and self worth

Activity providers
